Statement from House Speaker Clay Schexnayder on 2021 Veto Session

"The vote to override Governor Edwards' veto of the Fairness in Women's Sports Act fell two votes short today. While I am frustrated by the result, I am encouraged by the fact that we did something that has never been done in this state in asserting our legislative independence. Veto sessions should be the norm from now on as Louisiana's constitution instructs. We have separate and equal branches of government for a reason. We will bring this bill back next year and will not stop fighting."

- Clay Schexnayder, Speaker of the Louisiana House of Representatives
